

PRESS RELEASE – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Local Entrepreneurs Present ‘Growing a Local Company While Growing Up’ to Stir Loveland Young Professionals Oct. 20

LOVELAND, Colo. – Sept. 30, 2011 – Stir Loveland young professionals, a program through the Loveland Chamber of Commerce for those 45-and-younger, presents its October educational event from 7:30 – 9:00 a.m. on Oct. 13 featuring Kim and Alan Strobe with Savant Homes. In their presentation, “Growing a Local Company While Growing Up”, the Strobes will tell their story of entrepreneurial spirit and success, the path from young local teens to becoming the strong business partnership that they are today; and will provide attendees with tips on fulfilling their entrepreneurial dreams as a young professional.

The Stir Loveland educational event will be held at the Re/max Alliance building, 750 West Eisenhower Blvd. in Loveland. Young professional attendees will also enjoy a hearty breakfast and light networking prior to the event.

Stir members attend for free, non-members pay $10 and guests pay $5 for entry. There is limited space for this event so please RSVP online at www.loveland.org or e-mail info@loveland.org to register.

Date: Thurs, Oct. 20, 2011

Time: 7:30-9:00 a.m.

Location: Re/Max Alliance building, 750 West Eisenhower Blvd, Loveland

Cost: $10 at the door, (no charge for existing Stir members) Invite a first-time guest for $5 (requires a guest ticket).

Ticket Includes: Admission, networking, complimentary breakfast and a high-quality presentation from Kim and Alan Strobe.

Register and/or to become a member: call 667-6311 or e-mail info@loveland.org

About STIR

Loveland’s young professionals group, Stir Loveland, is a great opportunity for people 45 years of age and younger, to get together, meet new peers, share ideas, and learn from the experts. A social event is held every other month offering an informal atmosphere for networking, relaxing and having fun. On opposite months, an educational event is held, featuring some of the top leaders in the region. Stir Loveland is cultivated and nurtured by the Loveland Chamber of Commerce, and sponsored by The Tenfold Collective, Grimm Brothers Brewhouse, RE/MAX Alliance and the Egg & I. For more information about Stir, contact the Loveland Chamber of Commerce at 667-6311 or stir@loveland.org.

Stir meets every THIRD THURSDAY of the month. See the 2011 Schedule at:
<http://www.loveland.org/StirLoveland>.

For media inquiries, please contact:

Nicole Yost | Nicole@FynPR.com | 970-682-2420

###