

For Immediate Release
January 10, 2012

Media Contact: Sandra Hagen Solin
303.810.1914
shsolin@capitol-solutions.com

The NCLA Announces 2012 Mission to the Capitol – February 9th

Loveland, CO -- The Northern Colorado Legislative Alliance announces that the 2012 Mission to the Capitol, an annual event, will be held on Thursday, February 9th in collaboration with Leadership Fort Collins, Leadership Weld County, and Leadership Loveland.

Attendees will travel to Denver where they will engage Colorado's political leadership in discussions about critical issues facing our region. Participants will meet with regional legislators and policy makers on issues important to business success and watch the legislative process in action. Guests of NCLA will have opportunities to participate in exclusive breakout sessions with legislators throughout the day.

The group will depart from Embassy Suites conveniently located off I-25 and Crossroads Boulevard at 6:15 am. The program will include an opportunity to observe House activities and presentations from legislators and policy makers. Attendees will enjoy lunch with Northern Colorado legislators. The afternoon schedule continues with conversations and presentations from state leadership in addition to a tour of the Capitol building.

Members of the Fort Collins, Loveland and Greeley Chambers of Commerce and the Northern Colorado Economic Development Corporation, as well as the general public, are encouraged to register online at NCLAonline.net. The cost to attend will be $50 per participant. Registration includes lunch and transportation. Limited space available.

The NCLA is a partnership of the Fort Collins, Greeley and Loveland Chambers of Commerce and the Northern Colorado Economic Development Corporation. The NCLA is the leading voice in northern Colorado influencing local, state and federal policy on issues affecting the unique business interests of northern Colorado. For more information on The NCLA visit www.NCLAonline.net

###